

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE   February 23, 2009
CONTACT: Jared Cordes
(202) 225-5235

BOYD: We Must Chart Course to Fiscal Responsibility, Economic Growth
Bipartisan Fiscal Summit convenes to address fiscal, economic challenges

WASHINGTON, DC—Congressman Allen Boyd (D-North Florida) today attended a Fiscal Summit at the White House. President Obama invited about 100 guests to the Fiscal Summit, including both Democratic and Republican members of Congress. “Today’s Fiscal Summit was about coming together, taking a hard look at our long-term fiscal challenges and how to address them,” Boyd said. As a leader of the Blue Dog Coalition, Congressman Boyd has been a vocal advocate of fiscal responsibility. “Reducing our national debt is not just a fiscal issue; it’s a national security issue. Our long-term economic future depends on it,” he added. President Obama’s Fiscal Summit follows a February 10th meeting at the White House with Congressional leaders. “I am encouraged by the commitment that President Obama has made to address our long-term fiscal problems,” Boyd said.

-30-